ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE VIRGINIA ADVERTISER (FOR THE COUNTRY.) 28- 1s published regularly on TUESDAYS, THURSDAYS and SATURDAYS, at $6 per annum-payable in advance.

Address of Mr. Reverdy Johnson We have the speech of Mr. Reverdy Johnson at a meeting of the friends and admirers of Gen. Robert E. Lee, held at Raine's Hall, Baltimore city, a short time since, from which we make some extracts : "It was my good fortune to know him before the Mexican war, in those better days before the commencement of the sad struggle through which we have recently passed. I saw in him everything that could command the respect and admiration of men [loud applause], and I watched with peculiar interest his course in the Mexican war. It was also my good fortune to know the late Lieut. Gen. Scott. In the commencement of the struggle to which I have alluded, I occupied in Washington the position of quasi military adviser to him; and was in that capacity, intimately associated with him. I have heard him often declare that the glorious and continued success which crowned our arms in the war with Mexico was owning, in a large measure, to the skill, valor and undaunted courage of Robert E. Lee .-[Loud applause.] He entertained for him the warmest personal friendship, and it was his purpose to recommend him as his successor in the event of his death or inability to perform the duties of his high position. In April, 1861, after the commencement of hostilities between the two great sections of our country, Gen. Lee, then Lieut. Col. of cavalry in the army of the U. S., offered his resignation. I was with Gen. Scott when he was handed the letter of resignation and I saw what pain the fact caused him. While he regretted the step his most valuable officer had taken, he never failed to say emphatically, and over and again, that he believed he had taken it from an imperative sense of duty. [Lond applause.] You cannot imagine with what delight, when I had the honor to represent this country at the Court of Great Britain, I heard the praises of his fame and character which came from soldiers and statesmen. I need not speak of the comparative merits of General Lee, and the Union generals who opposed him; this is not the place or time for a discussion of their respective successes and deteats, but I may say that, as lar as I was able to judge of the sentiments of the military men of Great Britain. they thought none of the Union officers superior to General Robert E. Lec. Their admiskill on the battle field, and the skilful manner J. L. GRIGG, with which he planned and executed him. paigns, but the humane manner in which he performed his sad duty. They alluded special ly to his conduct when invading the territory of his enemy-his restraint upon his men. telling them that the honor of the army depended upon the manner of conducting the war in the enemy's country-and his refusal to resort to retaliatory measures. I know that great in fluences were brought to bear upon him when he invaded Pennsylvania, to induce him to corsent to extreme measures. His answer, how ever, was: "No: if I suffer my army to pur sue the course recommended, I cannot invoke the blessing of God upon my arms." He ENGLISH and FRENCH CLOTHS. property or to violate the rights of the citizens. the quality and style of which cannot be surpassed, and most respectfully solicits an examitaking of commissary stores by his orders, his officers paid for them in Confederate money at their then valuation. No burning homesteads illumined his march-no shivering and help less children were turned out of their homes to witness their destruction by the torch. With him all the rules of civilized war, having the higher sanction of God, were strictly observed. The manly fortitude with which he yielded at Appomattox to three times his numbers showed that he was worthy of the honors and the fame the South had given him. This is not the first time since the termination of the war I have expressed admiration and friendship for Robert E. Lee. When I heard that he was about to be prosecuted in a Virginia Court for the alleged crime of treason I wrote, to him at once, and with all my heart, that if he believed I could be of any service to him, professionally, I was at his command. All the ability I possess, increased by more than fifty years of study and experience, would have been cheerfully exerted to have saved him, for in saving him I believe I would have been saving the honor of my country. [Loud applause.] I received a characteristic reply in terms of friendship and grateful thanks. He wrote that he did not think the prosecution would take place. Hearing, however, some time af ter, that the prosecution would commence in Richmond I went at once to that city and saw his legal adviser, Mr. William H. McFarland, one of the ablest men of the bar of Virginia. Mr. McFarland showed me a copy of a letter from Gen. Lec, to Gen. Grant, enclosing an applacation for a pardon which he desired Gen.

or of the nation pledged to him. The President became satisfied, and no proceedings were ever taken. Gen. Grant trans mitted to the President the application of Gen. Lee for pardon, endorsed with his most earnest approval. No pardon was granted. He did not need it here, and when he appears before that great tribunal before which we must all be called, he will find he has no account to settle there. [Great applause.] No soldier who followed Gen. Lee could have felt more grief and sympathy at his grave than I would, could thave been present upon the mouraful oceanism of the dirty preparations in use. My hair, which was quite gray, has assumed its natural color after a few applications, and I cheerfully color after a few applications, and I cheerfully I have been present upon the mourtful occa-sion of his bucial. I lamented his loss as a private loss, and still more as a public loss. 1 knew that his example would continue to allay the passions aroused by the war, and which I was not surprised were excited by some acts in that war. I love my country; I am jealous of ber honor. I cherish her good name, and I am proud of the land of my birth. I forbear am proud of the land of my tirth. I forbear to criticise the lives and characters of her high officers and servants, but I can say with truth that, during the late war, the laws of humanity were forgotten and the higher orders of God were trodden under foot. The name of Lee appeals at once, and strongly, to every true appeals at once, and strongly, to every true heart in this land and throughout the world. Let political partizans, influenced by fanaticism and the hope of political plunder, find fault with and condemn us. They will be forgotten when the name of Lee will be resplendent with when the name of Lee will be resplendent with immortal glory.

CLEAR AND HARMLESS AS WATER. NATTANS' CRYSTAL DISCOVERY FOR

A Perfectly Clear Preparation, in One Bottle, as Easily Applied as Water, for Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color and Youthful Appearance, to Eradicate and Prevent Dandruff, to Promote the Growth of the Hair, and Stop its Falling.

It is perfectly harmless and entirely free from any poisonous substance, and will therefore take the place of all the dirty and unr leasant preparations now in use. It is warranted to contain no Lead, Nitrate of Silver or Sulphur, consequently it is perfectly free from all the objections so justly urged against the muddy and sulphurous compounds. In everything in which the articles now in use are objectionable Crystal Discovery is perfect.

Clear and clean as water, it does not soil the clothes or scalp, is agreeably perfumed, and makes one of the best dressings for the hair in use. It restores the color of the hair more perfect and uniformly than any other preparation, and always does so in from three to ten days. Virtually feeding the roots of the hair with all the nourishing qualities necessary to its growth and healthy condition, it restores the decayed, and induces a new growth of the hair more positively than anything else. The application of this wonderful discovery also produces a pleasant and cooling effect on the scalp, and gives harsh, wiry and brash hair a glossy and legant appearance.

Especial attention is called to the fact that it will positively give entire satisfaction in every case. Our aim is not to induce you to bug a single bottle, but to have you use it con-

THE STEWART PARLOR BASE-BURN-ING STOVE. The increasing demand for a first-class and reliable base-burning and self feeding stove which has been pressing upon all stove dealers so much of late, has induced the inventor and manufacturers of the celebrated STEWART STOVES to turn their attention in that direction, and the result is the production of a stove which for beauty of design, economy in the use of fuel, capacity for heating, and completeness in all its operations, is unsurpassed by any stove now in the market.

Amount the advantages claimed are: Economy in the use of Fuel-This stove being designed to overcome the great objection which has been raised against most of the self feeders now in use, namely, the inordinate consump-tion of fuel. The Stewart Parlor Base-Burner being provided with a brick lined fire pot and complete gas burning arrangements, generates a steady and powerful heat, which by the use of the draft damper is under perfect control, so that the heat may be radiated to suit the temperature of the room and a moderate or strong degree of heat thrown out as the will or pleasure of the operator may desire, thereby secur-ing a saving of at least one third of the amount of fuel consumed in stoves which cannot be thus controlled. Cheerfulness-This stove is provided with mica doors, arranged just above the fire box, and encircling almost the entire body of the stove. These doors are nicely hinged so that they can be opened at any time and the mica cleaned with the utmost facility, and when the fire is burning a steady and brilliant illumination is produced, thereby securing a cheerful-ness and comfort equal to that of an open grate or hearth fire.

Cleanliness - Being provided with a Patent Reversible Grate, which is easily shaken or dumped, and a large ash drawer in the base of the stove, no difficulty whatever is experienced from the escape of cinders or ashes into the room while shaking or dumping the grate.

Size of Coal-While in other base burners it has been found absolutely necessary to use only the smallest size of coal, this stove has been so constructed with its improved magazine and grate that the larger sizes of coal, ordinarily burned in parlor stoves, may be used with the best results. This is an important advantage, as the larger sized coal is purer and produces a greater heat, and prevents the waste arising from so much fine fuel falling through the grate.

This stove is offered to the public with the full belief that it contains better heating and economizing features than any other base burner now in use. Persons desiring a new stove are requested to give it a thorough examination and satisfy themselves that it is the best. I refer to the following persons who have the Stewart Parlor Base Burner in use: D.. Thomas Loockerman, Mrs. Thomas Burns, T. D. Fend-all, esq., Burke & Herbert, City Post Office and others of our city—all of whom unite in recommending it.

I keep also on hand a full assortment of WOOD and COAL STOVES The celebrated STEWART COOKING STOVE, with latest improvements, of the different sizes, jurnished.

Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion. Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS: Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury! Persons ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders and their Deadly Poison, should apply in-

mediately. DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surger London, Graduate of one or the most emineral Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most actonishing cures that were ever known; man; troubled with ringing in the ness and ears when asleep, great nervousness, boing alarmed at sudden sounds bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind. unfitting them for either busines, study, society or marriage. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakneso of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspep. sia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of a.emory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their viger, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a car(...in practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in perni-cious habits. Such persons must, before contemplating MARRIAGE, Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness, Indeed, without these the jour-ney through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-imed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from adjustice, and respectability are who, from education and respectability, can alone betriend him, delaying till the constitu-tional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, dealness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this carful disease becomes a housid which of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life. Vigor and Happi ness, in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment. DR. JOHNSTON, OFFICE, No. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET BALTIMORE, MD.,
